

Arggle Blackstone

Record of Will: 20Essex Co, Va Wills, Bonds, Inventories, Etc. 1722-1730

by John Frederick Dorman pg 7

Will of Argyl Blackstone, dated Aug 28, 1722

Being very sick and weak dated Aug 28, 1722.

Unto my daughter Elizabeth Hannah Zachary one shilling sterling. Unto my daughter Anne Blackstone one shilling sterling, for their full part of all my estate. Unto my daughter Holiday Blackston the cast iron pot I now have. Unto my daughter Franke Blackston my least brass kettle. Unto my beloved wife all my land and plantation, houses and orchard where I now live and after her decease to my son Argill. If he dye without heirs then my daughter Millicent and my daughter Franke Blackston.

All my persnal estate not beforee given to be equally divided between my beloved wife and my daughter Else Blackston and my daughter Judah Blackston and my daughter Holiday Blackston, and my daughter Myllisent Blackston and my daught Franke Blackston and my son Argill Blackston. My beloved wife and my daughter Alice Blackston executors.

Argol Blackston

Wit; Thos. Moor, Jno. Bates, Jno. Roberts Feb 19, 1723 Presented in Court by Millicent Blackston executrix.

Proved by John Bates and Jno. Roberts.

Bond of Millicent Blackston as executrix of Argol Blackston.

Unto Joseph Smith, Willm Daingfield, Thos Waring and Salvator Muscoe, Gentl, justices. For 100 sterling. Feb 19, 1722

Securities, John Bates, Joseph Anderson.